News from the Postulation

After the dates of appointment for the process at Rennes were postponed, the concerned met at Saint-Brieuc on the 19th December 2018 to listen to the Daughters of Providence who were responsible for the Clinic at Combourg in 1955.

In the meantime the members of the tribunal have been able to take a closer look at the life and work of our the Founder from the works already written in this regard.

On January 11th the tribunal will listen to the daughters of Dr. Galaine, the doctor who immediately intervened in the domestic accident of which Josette Poulain was a victim, on January 23rd, 1955, at Combourg. At the beginning of February, they will listen to the Parish Priest of Ploërmel, as well as to Brother Louis Balanant on the subject of the devotion to Jean-Marie de la Mennais and the favours obtained through his intercessions ...

When all these procedures will be completed, we shall proceed to the drafting of the findings.
Let us continue to pray for the happy outcome of all these proceedings.
